Katherine Benesch practices primarily in the areas of healthcare law and alternative dispute resolution (ADR), with particular emphasis on physician group practices, hospitals, hospital-physician relationships, credentialing, academic medical centers, state and federal regulatory matters, fraud and abuse, including Stark Law, anti-kickback and False Claims Act issues, telemedicine, managed care, contracting, employment and licensing matters. As a litigator, Ms. Benesch has represented clients in trial, appellate cases and administrative hearings involving physician, hospital and managed care liability, contract, credentialing, commercial, employment and reimbursement disputes, state licensure issues and research misconduct. As a counselor, arbitrator and mediator, she handles many types of cases, including disputes over clinical research trials, reimbursement, managed care, hospital-physician relationships, shareholder disputes and commercial and risk-sharing contracts and issues arising under the Affordable Care Act.

Ms. Benesch is a member of the American, Mercer County, New Jersey and Pennsylvania bar associations, the American Health Lawyers Association (a former Vice Chair of its Labor & Employment Law Practice Group), the Healthcare Financial Management Association and is a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation. She has written numerous articles and lectured throughout the country on healthcare, litigation and arbitration/mediation issues. Ms. Benesch is a member of the Advisory Board of the BNA Health Law Reporter, has served on the American Arbitration Association Healthcare Advisory Council, and is chair of the CPR Healthcare and Life Sciences Committee. She was recently named a Fellow of the American Health Lawyers Association.

Ms. Benesch has served as President of the Princeton Bar Association, Chair of the Health and Hospital Law Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association, Chair of the Princeton Regional Health Commission and Governor of the American Bar Association Health Law Section. Ms. Benesch serves on the District Panel of Mediators of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, the Commercial Panel of Arbitrators, the Panel of Mediators, the Large Complex Case Panel and the National Healthcare Panel of the American Arbitration Association. She is an arbitrator and mediator for the American Health Lawyers Association, and has served as a member of its 5-person ADR Service Review Board. She has served as an Adjunct Assistant Professor at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine and the Robert Wood Johnson Medical School, and on the Technical Review Board of the Princeton Journal of Bioethics. She was named by Nightingale's Healthcare News as one of twelve Outstanding Hospital Attorneys for 2004, has been elected a Super Lawyer by her peers since 2005 and is listed as one of New Jersey's Top Rated Lawyers. She has an AV Preeminent Peer Review Rating with Martindale Hubbell.

Admitted to practice in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia, Ms. Benesch is a graduate of Duquesne University School of Law, Yale University School of Medicine (M.P.H.) and Wheaton College.
